

Set/Rep Meeting Minutes
Of School of Energy
Wednesday December 3rd, 2014

Chair: Jaime Haakons, Chair of the School of Energy

Set Reps:

Staff: Hannah Bielert, SA Health and Wellness Program Coordinator

3.1 Meeting called to order

The Chairperson, Jamie calls meeting to order at 4:38 pm

3.2 White Rose Campaign

Dec 6th is the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women. Once again, the BCITSA presents the White Rose campaign which promotes anti-violence on women and a violence-free society. Tokens of awareness will be distributed to BCIT students as a reminder to never commit, condone, or remain silent about violence. Join us in the Great Hall where we will commemorate the 14 women who lost their lives in the Montreal Massacre at the École Polytechnique Institution on Dec 6th, 1989. A memorial and candlelight vigil will be displayed in the Great Hall on December 5th. Students and staff are invited to come light a candle for anyone who has been touched by violence.

Event info:

Friday, December 5th

3.4 QPR

- You'll get an email about this over the break
- Suicide prevention training
- Not expecting you to be counsellors

3.5 Set Rep Survey

- Good feedback

- Survey has closed now but is still open to discussion
- To submit further anonymous suggestions, feel free to contact Justin Bargiacchi at jbargiacchi@bcitsa.ca

3.6 Round Table

Q: Some students requested benches in the hallways.

A: This request can't be granted as it is a safety hazard.

Q: The mechatronics room is really hot.

A: Call facilities at 604-432-8777.

Q: Some lectures are really loud due to people talking in class.

A: Jamie would gladly come to one of your lectures to address the issue.

Q: Instructor reviews – many instructors just don't care or aren't accepting of the information.

A: The Vice President of Academic, Bill Dow is pushing for better teacher evaluation.

Q: Should I be asking students what they're complaints and issues are or just waiting for them to approach me?

A: You don't need to ask for complaints/issues unless they come to you. The students that do care will provide you with feedback. Those are the students who we want to hear from.

3.7 Meeting Adjournment

Jaime adjourns the meeting at 4:57 pm.
